Day 1: The Rock Landscape of Adršpach and the Mysterious Power of the Menhirs

An unusual scenery and a magical atmosphere await you on a trip to Adršpach and the Zdoňov Menhirs.

The Adršpach-Teplice Rocks are among the most visited places in the Hradec Králové Region – and it's no wonder. This fairy-tale rock city, with its lakes and dramatic formations, attracts visitors from all over the world. That's why it's necessary to book your visit in advance. If you want to experience the rocks without the crowds, go outside the main season. You can extend your trip by visiting Adršpach Chateau or heading to the mystical Zdoňov Menhirs and the Cross Hill (Křížový vrch), which offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape.

Day 2: From the Markoušovice Lookout Tower to the Views from Žaltman

If you want to see the landscape spread out before you like in the palm of your hand, take a hike from Malé Svatoňovice to the Markoušovice lookout tower, which offers views of the Krkonoše Mountains, the Rýchory range, and the Rozkoš reservoir. Then continue along the green trail to the Žaltman lookout tower – the highest peak of the Jestřebí Mountains, with views reaching as far as Poland. Along the way, you can rest and refresh at Jestřebí bouda.

Afterwards, discover the secrets of the underground at the Bohumír Copper Mine.

Day 4: On Foot from Pec pod Sněžkou to the Summit of Mount Sněžka

You can reach Sněžka from Pec pod Sněžkou via several paths, but the best option is to plan a circular route. First, climb through Růžová hora, where you can enjoy the beautiful mountain scenery and stop for blueberry dumplings at a local mountain hut. Then, continue all the way to the summit. At the top of Sněžka, you'll find the Czech Post Office, where you can send a postcard with a unique stamp, as well as the St. Lawrence Chapel. From the summit, you'll be treated to stunning views, and even though the weather can be unpredictable, it will be worth it. The way back leads along the Polish side through Obří Sedlo and Obří Důl, where you can enjoy the beautiful nature and waterfalls. This trip promises a challenging but unforgettable experience. Don't forget to prepare for mountain weather before you set off!

Day 5: The Czech-Polish Ridge Trail Full of Mountain Panoramas

The Czech-Polish Ridge Trail is the perfect choice for nature lovers, mountains, and rock formations. The entire route stretches nearly 150 km, so you can choose a section that suits you the best or divide it into several days. It starts at Vosecká Bouda and continues via Obří Sedlo to Sněžka. From there, the trail takes you to Pomezní Boudy, where you can relax in one of the local restaurants. The journey then leads through the Adršpašsko-Teplické Rocks and Broumov Walls to Kamenné Hřiby. In this section, rock formation enthusiasts will be in their element. The trail continues through Božanovský Špičák to the Orlické Mountains, where you will visit Šerlich and the Masaryk Hut. From there, you have options – you can head to the lookout tower on Anenský Hill or to the Hanička Artillery Fortress. You can conclude the entire trail at Zemská Brána.
